

FIFTEENTH CONGRESS OF)
THE REPUBLIC OF THE PHILIPPINES)
Second Regular Session

11 NOV 17 P4:33

SENATE

RECEIVED BY:

P.S. Resolution No. 642

Introduced by Senator Francis N. Pangilinan

RESOLUTION
DECLARING NOVEMBER 23 OF EVERY YEAR TO BE A NATIONAL DAY TO END IMPUNITY

WHEREAS, it has been two years since the November 23, 2009 Ampatuan massacre where 58 lives, including that of 32 media workers, were lost in what was the worst single instance of electoral violence in the country's recent history and the deadliest single attack on the press ever;

WHEREAS, the Ampatuan massacre, the worst manifestation of the plague of extrajudicial killings, has claimed the lives of hundreds of people – media workers, judges, lawyers, religious activists – whose only involvement was to exercise their constitutionally guaranteed right to free expression;

WHEREAS, the International Freedom of Expression Network has declared November 23 of every year as the International Day to End Impunity;

WHEREAS, the failure to solve all but a pitiful handful of these murder cases and to enforce existing laws intended to protect and promote human rights has bred a culture of impunity that has emboldened those who would curtail free expression;

WHEREAS, those who defend human rights and issue calls for justice and accountability all too often find themselves targets of extrajudicial killings and other attacks as well;

WHEREAS, the government should vow to bring justice and ensure good governance by taking measures to facilitate the expeditious disposal of unsolved cases of extrajudicial killings;

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, AS IT IS HEREBY RESOLVED that the Senate of the Philippines expresses its firm support for the declaration of November 23 of every year as a National Day to End Impunity.

ADOPTED.

