Republic Act No. 6975 established the Philippine National Police (PNP) under a Reorganized Department of the Interior and Local Government. This law stated that PNP is supposed to have a Maritime Police Unit, to absorb the police functions of the Coast Guard and to be provided with sea capabilities.

Admittedly, this move is impractical in view of the fact that the PNP has already a great deal of obligations on land to be burdened with additional responsibilities at sea. Other agencies, such as the Coast Guard and the Navy, are better oriented to cover our territorial waters. Likewise, the rivers, lakes and coastal areas within localities are better covered by the local government units.

The concept of a Maritime Police Command only conveys a duplication of work that can create conflicts with the functions of other existing agencies. Coordination and rationalization of law enforcement agencies on land, as it is, has already been problematic. With this reality, additional difficulties at sea will no longer be necessary.

In this light, this bill seeks to amend Republic Act No. 6975 by removing the maritime functions of the PNP.

In view of the foregoing, the immediate approval of this bill is earnestly sought.
