The Senate in the 15th Congress

SEVENTY-SEVEN DAYS after the credible May 2010 automated national and local elections, and three weeks after former Senator Benigno Simeon Aquino III was sworn in as President of the Republic of the Philippines on June 30, the 15th Congress of the Philippines opened its first of three regular sessions on July 26, 2010.

People's hopes were high that the new administration, which won under the "Walang Mahirap Kung Walang Corrupt" campaign slogan of the elected president, would introduce much-needed reforms in governance. Expectations too were high that Congress, majority of its members were elected into power in a message of reform, would be supportive of the "Daang Matuwid" vision of the administration.

Thus, by the end of the First Regular Session, Republic Act (RA) No. 10149, or An Act To Promote Financial Viability and Fiscal Discipline in Government-Owned or Controlled Corporations and to Strengthen the Role of the State in Its Governance and Management to Make Them More Responsive to the Needs of Public Interest, was approved into law by the Senate. It was the first major reform law that the 15th Congress approved in line with the new administration's reform agenda and anti-corruption campaign.

Another vital measure passed by the chamber was RA No. 10153, or An Act Providing for the Synchronization of the Elections in the Autonomous Region in Muslim Mindanao (ARMM) with the National and Local Elections. It was described by Senate President Juan Ponce Enrile as a law that would hopefully paved the way for much-needed political, social and economic reforms in the region of Muslim Mindanao. "(The law) does not reduce, decrease or, in any manner dilute the powers of the autonomy of Muslim Mindanao," he explained during the passage of the bill in the Senate, to allay the fears expressed by certain sectors during the plenary debates. It simply wishes to comply with the Constitution that there must be a synchronized election for national and local officials, he added.

“We can achieve what we, in this Chamber, have set out to do. As an old adage goes, ‘where there is a will, there is a way’.” (Senate President Juan Ponce Enrile in his report during the First Regular Session, 15th Congress)

The Senate also passed in record time during the First Regular Session the national budget for 2011, or R.A. No. 10147, to enable the government to fund vital programs and projects for the people. And the feat was repeated for the 2012 and 2013 national government budgets.

Other laws passed by Congress were:

- R.A. No. 10150 An Act Extending the Implementation of the Lifeline Rate, Amending for the Purpose Section 73 of the Republic Act Numbered Ninety-One Thirty-Six, Otherwise Known as The “Electric Power Industry Reform Act of 2001” (S. No. 2846/H. No. 4169) [June 21, 2011]
- R.A. No. 10151 An Act Allowing the Employment of Night Workers, Thereby Repealing Articles 130 and 131 of Presidential Decree Number Four Hundred Forty-

Two, As Amended, Otherwise Known as the Labor Code of the Philippines (S. No. 2701/H. No. 4276) [June 21, 2011]

- R.A. No. 10152 An Act Providing for Mandatory Basic Immunization Services for Infants and Children, Repealing for the Purpose Presidential Decree No. 996, as Amended (S. No. 138/H.No. 4393) [June 21, 2011]

Second Regular Session

Two months after Congress opened its Second Regular Session, the first Legislative Summit was sponsored by the House of Representatives in September 2011 in order for the Senate and the House to coordinate the passage of their priority bills. Initial discussions were also held on the possibility of amending the economic provisions of the Constitution, such as on the foreign ownership of certain industries to attract investments, and in what manner should this amendment be done. But other events put future discussions in the backburner.

The Senate, or the Congress, in general, would be occupied by activities related to the impeachment of the Chief Justice during the Second Segular Session. The members of the Senate took the role of senator-judges in the first successful impeachment trial in the history of the Senate. For indeed on December 14, 2011, the members convened as an Impeachment Court to try the Articles of Impeachment filed by majority of the members of the House of Representatives against the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court.

Thus from January to May 2012, the court held 44 days of trial when the people witnessed how the Senate, sitting as an Impeachment Court, tried the complaint filed against the chief magistrate of the land, Chief Justice Renato C. Corona. The people waited with bated breath how the chamber would decide on his fate, and the nation expressed a collective sigh of relief when the Senate rendered judgment. Fears that the entire process would lead to a constitutional crisis, tear the nation apart, or disrupt the conduct of national affairs, remained just that — imagined fears. Senate President Enrile, also the Presiding Judge during the trial, commended his colleagues afterwards “for exhibiting exemplary conduct and for helping maintain our country’s stability during the entire impeachment trial.”

“It is also with pride that I wish to report that despite the very taxing impeachment hearings, the Senate, through its various committees and in Plenary, continued to work on its legislative duties.” (Senate President Juan Ponce Enrile in his sine die adjournment speech during the 2nd Regular Session, 15th Congress)

Even while the trial was going on, however, the Senate found the time to attend to legislative work. Committee hearings were conducted, proposed laws were debated in plenary, measures that sought to address the country’s economic difficulties and respond to the prevailing challenges in health, education, environmental protection, public safety, and consumer protection.

In fact, despite the very taxing Impeachment Trial, the Congress has enacted several pertinent laws addressing different major reforms the administration has committed to when it adjourned its second regular session. Among them were:

- RA No. 10154, or the Early Release of Retirement Pay Act;
- RA No. 10155 or the General Appropriations Act for 2012;
- RA No. 10156, Conferment of Civil Service Eligibility to Members of Sangguniang Bayan, Panglungsod and Panlalawigan;
- RA No. 10157, an Act Institutionalizing the Kindergarten Education into Basic Education System;
- RA No. 10158, an Act Decriminalizing Vagrancy;
- RA No. 10167, an Act to Further Strengthen the Anti-Money Laundering Law;

- Joint Res. No, 3, Annuling the Book of Voters of the Municipalities/Cities in the ARMM, Directing the Comelec to Immediately Conduct a New General Registration of Voters in the Region.

While all of these laws have their own significance and relevance, the Senate once again took pride in the fact that it passed the national budget once again in record time. RA No. 10155 provided for a total amount of P1.816 Trillion for public expenditure programs, thus giving priority to the Department of Education; Department of Public Works and Highways; department of Interior and Local Government, and the Department of National Defense. Also, the Congress passed Joint Resolution No. 2, increasing the Corporate Operating Budget of the NAPOCOR.

Third Regular Session

In his yearend report to the nation before Congress adjourned for the Christmas and New Year holiday break, Senate President Enrile emphasized that 2012 was a very historical period and a challenging year for the Senate. "It was a period which required that tough decisions be made, individual and collective wisdom be shared, and a common vision — the national interest — be faced," he stated.

He reported that the Chamber has approved 87 of its own bills and 234 bills from the House of Representatives since the start of the Third Regular Session in July 2012.

Highlighting the upper chamber's accomplishment, according to him, was the early passage—for the third straight year, of the P2.006- trillion national budget for 2013, which was signed into law by President Benigno Simeon Aquino III on the second week of December.

The most debated sin tax bill was enacted into law on December 20. On the other hand, the reproductive health bill became R.A. No. 10354 or an Act Providing for a National Policy on Responsible Parenthood and Reproductive Health the following day.

“As we end our legislative work this year and go onto our Christmas and New Year holiday break, let me thank all of you for the exemplary work you performed in making 2012 a very historical period for the Senate. I am sure that the nation takes pride in what we have achieved this year. For, indeed, 2012 has been a challenging year for all of us. It was a period which required that tough decisions be made, individual and collective wisdom be shared, and a common vision — the national interest — be faced.” (Senate President Juan Ponce Enrile in his year-end report and message, December 19, 2012)

Other relevant measures that were passed and signed into law were the Domestic Workers Act which provides additional protection and benefits for house helpers; the Expanded Anti-Trafficking In Persons Act, amending the act to eliminate trafficking in persons specially women and children; the law defining and penalizing the crime of enforced or involuntary disappearance; the electoral reform laws such as the, Electoral Processes Accessibility Act, Mandatory Biometrics Voters Registration and Local Absentee Voting for Media; the Human Rights Victims Reparation and Recognition Act; the Recognizance Act; and the Early Years Act.

A total of 460 national and local bills have been signed into law for the duration of the Third Regular Session that started in July 2012, the Senate President further reported.

Worthy to mention also that both the Senate and the House of Representatives have approved bills creating regional and municipal trial courts, establishing national high schools, and converting provincial roads into national roads

As the 15th Congress had its last day of session on its 06 June 2013, the following national laws, among others, have been enacted:

The Senate Committees Of the 15th Congress: Another One For the History Books

by the Committee Affairs Bureau

The members of the Senate successfully juggled roles as legislators and judges of the Impeachment Court in the 15th Congress. It was the first time that the Upper Chamber successfully completed an impeachment trial. It tried and found guilty, a sitting official, no less than the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court himself. But even in the midst of the impeachment hearings, the different Senate committees found enough time for legislative work and were instrumental in the passage of different major legislations like the Republic Act (RA) No. 10533 or the Enhanced Basic Education Act of 2013; RA 10149 or the GOCC Governance Act of 2011; RA 10173 or the Data Privacy Act of 2012; and RA 10354 or the Responsible Parenthood and Reproductive Health Act of 2012.
