SEC. 14. Internal Rules of Procedure. – (A) On the first regular session following the election of its members and within ninety (90) days thereafter, the sangguniang panlalawigan shall adopt its own rules of procedure.

(B) The rules of procedure shall provide for the following:

(1) The organization of the sanggunian and the election of its officers as well as the creation of standing committees which shall include, but shall not be limited to, the committees on appropriations, revenues, engineering and public works, education and health, women and family, human rights, youth and sports development, environmental protection, peace and order and traffic, and cooperatives; the general jurisdiction of each committee; and the election of the chairman and members of each committee;

(2) The order and calendar of business for each session;

(3) The legislative process;

(4) The parliamentary procedures which include the conduct of members during sessions;

(5) The discipline of members for disorderly behavior and absences without justifiable cause for four consecutive sessions for which they may be censured, reprimanded or excluded from the session, suspended for not more than sixty (60) days, or expelled: Provided, That the penalty of suspension or expulsion shall require the concurrence of at least two-thirds (2/3) of all the sanggunian members: Provided, further, That the member convicted by final judgment to imprisonment of at least one year for any crime involving moral turpitude shall be automatically expelled from the sanggunian; and
(6) Such other rules as the sanggunian may adopt.

SEC. 15. Full Disclosure of Financial and Business Interests of Sangguniang Panlalawigan Members. — (A) Every sangguniang panlalawigan member shall, upon assumption to office, make a full disclosure of his business and financial interests. He shall also disclose any business and financial, professional relationship, or any relation by affinity or consanguinity within the fourth civil degree which he may have with any person, firm or entity affected by any ordinance or resolution under consideration by the sanggunian of which he is a member, which relationship may result in conflict of interest. Such relationship shall include:

(1) Ownership of stocks or capital, or investment in the entity or firm to which the ordinance or resolution may apply; and

(2) Contracts or agreements with any person or entity which the ordinance or resolution under consideration may affect.

In the absence of a specific constitutional or statutory provision applicable to this situation, "conflict of interest" refers in general to one where it may be reasonably deduced that a member of a sangguniang panlalawigan may not act in the public interest due to some private, pecuniary or other personal considerations that may tend to affect his judgment to the prejudice of the service or the public.

(B) The disclosure required under this Act shall be made in writing and submitted to the secretary of the sanggunian or the secretary of the committee of which he is a member. The disclosure shall, in all cases, form part of the record of the proceedings and shall be made in the following manner:

(1) Disclosure shall be made before the member participates in the deliberations on the ordinance or resolution under consideration: Provided, That if the member did not participate during the deliberations, the disclosure shall be made before voting on the ordinance or resolution on second and third readings; and

(2) Disclosure shall be made when a member takes a position or makes a privilege speech on a matter that may affect the business interest, financial connection or professional relationship described herein.

SEC. 16. Sessions.—(A) On the first day of session immediately following the election of its members, the sangguniang panlalawigan shall, by resolution, fix the day, time and place of its regular sessions. The minimum number of regular sessions of the sangguniang panlalawigan shall be once a week.

(B) When the public interest so demands, special sessions may be called by the provincial governor or by a majority of the members of the sanggunian.

(C) All sanggunian sessions shall be open to the public unless a closed-door session is ordered by an affirmative vote of a majority of the members present, there being a quorum, in the public interest or for reasons of security, decency or morality. No two sessions, regular or special, may be held in a single day.

(D) In the case of special sessions of the sanggunian, a written notice to the members shall be served personally at the members' usual place of residence at least twenty-four (24) hours before the special session is held.

Unless otherwise concurred in by two-thirds (2/3) vote of the sanggunian members present, there being a quorum, no other matters may be considered at a special session except those stated in the notice.

(E) The sanggunian shall keep a journal and a record of its proceedings which may be published upon resolution of the sangguniang panlalawigan.

SEC. 17. Quorum.—(A) A majority of all the members of the sanggunian who have been elected and qualified shall constitute a quorum to transact official business. Should a question of quorum be raised during the session, the presiding officer shall immediately proceed to call the roll of the members and thereafter announce the results.

(B) Where there is no quorum, the presiding officer may declare a recess until such time that a quorum is constituted, or a majority of members present may adjourn from day to day and, may compel the immediate attendance of any member absent without justifiable cause by designating a member of the sanggunian, to be assisted by a member or members of the police force assigned in the territorial jurisdiction of the province, to arrest the absent member and present him at the session.

(C) If there is still no quorum despite the enforcement of the immediately preceding subsection, no business shall be transacted. The presiding officer, upon proper motion duly approved by the members present, shall then declare the session adjourned for lack of quorum.

SEC. 18. Approval of Ordinances. — (A) Every ordinance enacted by the sangguniung panlalawigan shall be presented to the provincial governor. If the governor approves the same, he shall affix his signature on each and every page thereof; otherwise, he shall veto it and return the same with his objections to the sanggunian, which may proceed to reconsider the same. The sanggunian may override the veto of the governor by two-thirds (2/3) vote of all its members, thereby making the ordinance or resolution effective for all legal intents and purposes.

(B) The veto shall be communicated by the governor to the sangguniung panlalawigan within fifteen (15) days; otherwise, the ordinance shall be deemed approved as if he had signed it.

SEC. 19. Veto Power of the Governor. — (A) The provincial governor may veto any ordinance of the sangguniung panlalawigan on the ground that it is prejudicial to the public welfare, stating his reasons thereof in writing.

(B) The governor shall have the power to veto any particular item or items of an appropriations ordinance, an ordinance or resolution adopting a local development plan, a public investment program, or an ordinance directing the payment of money or creating liability. In such case, the veto shall not affect the item or items which are not objected to. The vetoed item or items shall not take effect unless the sangguniung panlalawigan overrides the veto in the manner herein provided; otherwise, the item or items in the appropriations ordinance of the previous year corresponding to those vetoed, if any, shall be deemed reenacted.
(C) The governor may veto an ordinance or resolution only once. The sanggunian may override the veto of the governor by two-thirds (2/3) vote of all its members, thereby making the ordinance effective even without the approval of the provincial governor.

ARTICLE VI

SUCCESSION FOR ELECTIVE PROVINCIAL OFFICIALS

SEC. 20. Permanent Vacancy in the Office of the Provincial Governor. — (A) If a permanent vacancy occurs in the office of the governor, the vice governor shall become the governor. If the vice governor refuses to assume the position of governor, the highest ranking sangguniang panlalawigan member shall become the governor. If a permanent vacancy occurs in the office of the vice governor, the highest ranking sangguniang panlalawigan member or, in case of his permanent incapacity, the second highest ranking sangguniang panlalawigan member shall become the provincial governor or vice governor, as the case may be. Subsequent vacancies in said offices shall be filled automatically by the other sanggunian members according to their ranking as defined herein:

1) A tie between or among the highest ranking sangguniang panlalawigan members shall be resolved by drawing of lots;

2) The successors as defined herein shall serve only the unexpired terms of their predecessors;

3) For purposes of this Act, a permanent vacancy arises when an elective local official fills a higher vacant office, refuses to assume office, fails to qualify, dies, is removed from office, voluntarily resigns, or is otherwise permanently incapacitated to discharge the functions of his office; and

4) For purposes of succession as provided in this Act, ranking in the sangguniang panlalawigan shall be determined on the basis of the proportion of votes obtained by each winning candidate to the total number of registered voters in the province in the immediately preceding local elections.
-(A) Permanent vacancies in the sangguniang panlalawigan where automatic succession as provided above does not apply shall be filled by appointments in the following manner:

(1) The President, through the Executive Secretary shall make the aforesaid appointments;

(2) Only the nominee of the political party under which the sanggunian member concerned had been elected shall be appointed in the manner herein provided. The appointee shall come from the political party as that of the sanggunian member who caused the vacancy and shall serve the unexpired term of the vacant office. In the appointment herein mentioned, a nomination and a certificate of membership of the appointee from the highest official of the political party concerned are conditions sine qua non, and any appointment without such nomination and certification shall be null and void ab initio and shall be a ground for administrative action against the official responsible therefor;

(3) In case the permanent vacancy is caused by a sanggunian member who does not belong to any political party, the governor shall, upon recommendation of the sangguniang panlalawigan, appoint a qualified person to fill the vacancy; and

(4) In case of vacancy in the representation of the sangguniang kabataan, the sangguniang barangay and the provincial league of councilors in the sangguniang panlalawigan, said vacancy shall be filled automatically by the official next in rank of the organization concerned.

SEC. 22. Temporary Vacancy in the Office of the Provincial Governor. – (A) When the governor is temporarily incapacitated to perform his duties for physical or legal reasons such as, but not limited to, leave of absence, travel abroad and suspension from office, the vice governor shall automatically exercise the powers and perform the duties and functions of the governor, except the power to appoint, suspend or dismiss employees which can only be exercised if the period of temporary incapacity exceeds thirty (30) working days.
(B) Said temporary incapacity shall terminate upon submission to the sangguniang panlalawigan of a written declaration by the governor that he has reported back to office. In case where the temporary incapacity is due to legal cause, the governor shall also submit necessary documents showing that the said legal cause no longer exists.

(C) When the provincial governor is traveling within the country but outside the territorial jurisdiction of the province for a period not exceeding three consecutive days, he may designate in writing the officer-in-charge of his office. Such authorization shall specify the powers and functions that the local official concerned shall exercise in the absence of the governor except the power to appoint, suspend or dismiss employees.

(D) In the event, however, that the governor fails or refuses to issue such authorization, the vice governor shall have the right to assume the powers, duties and functions of the said office on the fourth day of absence of the governor, subject to the limitations provided in subsection (C) hereof.

(E) Except as provided above, the governor shall in no case authorize any local official to assume the powers, duties and functions of the office other than the vice governor.

ARTICLE VII
