

SEVENTEENTH CONGRESS OF THE REPUBLIC
OF THE PHILIPPINES
First Regular Session

SENATE
Senate Bill No. 253

EXPLANATORY NOTE

“A lying witness can make as positive an identification as a truthful witness can. The lying witness can also say as forthrightly and unequivocally, ‘He did it!’ without blinking an eye.”<sup>1</sup>

In our criminal justice system, the testimony of a witness, especially that of an eyewitness, is crucial. The direct and positive identification by a witness is given considerable weight by our courts. In the same vein, prosecutors often rely on testimonies under oath or sworn affidavits in finding probable cause for the purpose of filing information before the courts. It is therefore a fundamental rule that sworn testimonies should be honest and should not leave any room for inconsistency and untruthfulness.

Testimonies before the court and sworn affidavits are made under the sacred oath of truth. However, it is worrying that the sacredness of statements made before the courts and that of sworn affidavits are being disregarded. The assertion of falsehood, under oath or affirmation, is becoming prevalent. False testimonies and sworn statements are sometimes being used to support malicious complaints with the intent of harassing and persecuting innocent persons. This pernicious practice is aimed not only to harass innocent persons but also to put them behind bars and make their families suffer. It is noteworthy that because of these untruthful and inconsistent statements, we have witnessed how some men were robbed of their youth and freedom for a long period of time only to be freed later on account that the reason for their incarceration was based on a “polluted source”.

The prevalence of untruthful testimonies and statements may be deterred if public officials and employees are responsible and prudent. They shall exercise vigilance in their quest for the truth, and uphold the rule of law and not their thirst for victory at the expense of others. However, it is appalling that public officials and employees, themselves, encourage, induce or even force a person to assert falsehood under oath.

Some public prosecutors, in violation of the code of their profession<sup>2</sup>, suppress facts and conceal witnesses capable of establishing the innocence of the accused instead of making sure that justice is observed. Sometimes, they even offer false testimonies and perjured witnesses to support their unfounded charges. Thus, the duty to uphold the truth is discounted in order to further their evil designs or that of their superiors or sometimes just to have a closure on a case.

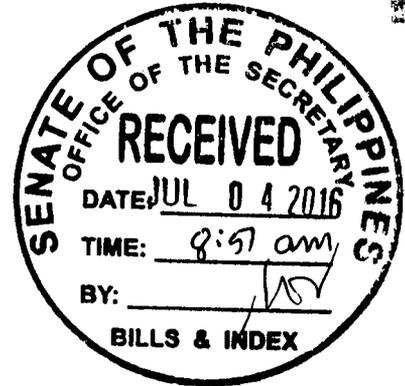

This Bill seeks to deter the commission of the crimes of false testimony and perjury in solemn affirmation and uphold the sacredness of oath in testimonies and sworn statements by increasing the penalty for their commission, amending for the purpose Articles 180, 183 and 184 of the Revised Penal Code, as amended. Likewise, public official or employees who facilitate or induce another person to commit the said crimes shall be likewise be held liable and perpetually disqualified from holding a public office or employment.

In view of the foregoing, early passage of this measure is earnestly requested.
